Top stars and a unique atmosphere

The Porsche Tennis Grand Prix is one of the most popular tournaments on the WTA Tour and traditionally treats spectators to tennis of the highest calibre. Three players in the world's Top 4 – Elena Rybakina, Iga Swiatek and Coco Gauff – competed at this year's edition. A total of six representatives from the Top 10 were also in action.

Elena Rybakina secured both the title and the main prize – a 911 Carrera S Cabriolet – celebrating her second triumph at the tournament after her victory in 2024. For the reigning US Open champion, the success was an important step on her way to becoming the new world No. 1.

Alongside the top-class line-up and the special atmosphere inside the Porsche Arena, the Porsche Tennis Grand Prix will again feature an attractive supporting programme in 2027. With its wide range of activities for all ages, the WTA tournament is an event for the whole family.
